

The Eagle

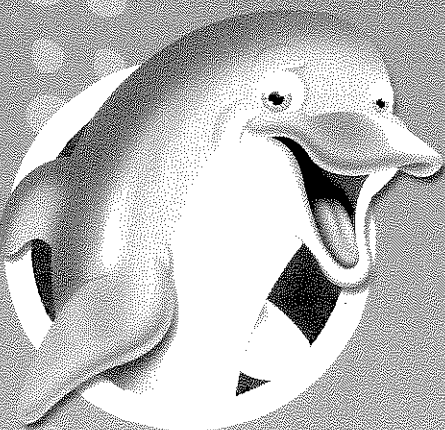

If your four letter results included the letters NT then congratulations, your type is most likely to be the Eagle. This does not mean you are any better or worse than any of the other types, only different in the way you choose to use your personality. Remember to have both patience and tolerance when you are working together with the other types, just like they need to have respect for your type. For a more detailed description of the Eagle, talk to your Teacher and ask for your certificate.

The Kangaroo

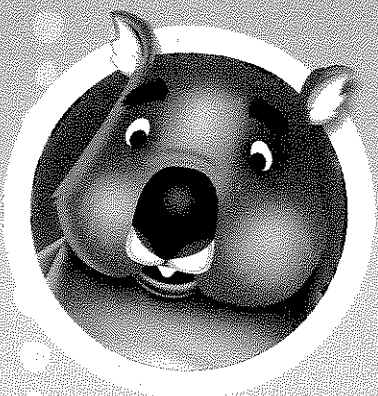

If your four letter results included the letters SP then congratulations, your type is most likely to be the Kangaroo. This does not mean you are any better or worse than any of the other types, only different in the way you choose to use your personality. Remember to think ahead and plan any major projects you have to do; and have patience with others if they do things differently to you. For a more detailed description of the Kangaroo, talk to your Teacher and ask for your certificate.

The Dolphin

If your four letter results included the letters NF then congratulations, your type is most likely to be the Dolphin. This does not mean you are any better or worse than any of the other types, only different in the way you choose to use your personality. Have patience if others hurt your feelings as they don't always know what they are doing; and realise not everyone sees life like you. For a more detailed description of the Dolphin, talk to your Teacher and ask for your certificate.

The Wombat

If your four letter results included the letters SJ then congratulations, your type is most likely to be the Wombat. This does not mean you are any better or worse than any of the other types, only different in the way you choose to use your personality. Remember to relax and have some fun now and again, and to have patience with others, even when they don't do what they are supposed to. For a more detailed description of the Wombat, talk to your Teacher and ask for your certificate.
